3RD ANNUAL HISTORIC HOUSE TOUR

The 3rd Annual Historic House Tour will celebrate America's colonial past and Tredyffrin's 300th anniversary with visits to historic homes in Tredyffrin Township. To commemorate this anniversary year, we will feature homes from all 'corners' of the township - enjoy exploring your community!

Light refreshments will be served at the home of Senator Philander Knox

3rd Annual Historic House Tour Information

Please Keep this Information for Tour Day

- Pick-Up location for Tickets is at the Duportail House, 297 Adams Drive, Chesterbrook (off of Chesterbrook Blvd), on Saturday, September 22th, Noon – 1:00 PM. After picking up your tour information, you are free to begin the house tour at 1:00 PM. Houses will remain open to tour until 5:00 PM.

Houses will not be available to tour prior to 1:00 PM.

- There is no set “order” to see the houses - you are free to visit the houses in any order that you would like.
- At the pick-up location, you will receive a (1) house tour badge, (2) a brochure with house addresses and a brief history; and (3) a map indicating the addresses and parking locations of each property.
- In addition to a Tredyffrin Historic Preservation Trust Board Member, each house will be staffed with many volunteers.
- All of the houses on this tour are beautifully historic properties and we hope that you will be respectful of the owner’s possessions.
- For access to the tour houses, you must wear your tour badge at all times.
- We suggest that you wear low heeled walking shoes; ladies please no high heeled shoes.
- You will not receive a confirmation in the mail – please retain this information sheet as a reference. Your cancelled check will be your receipt of payment.
- For questions concerning the house tour, please contact:
