AMTRAK AND PARTNERS HOST OPEN HOUSE ON PAOLI STATION ACCESSIBILITY IMPROVEMENTS PROJECT Opportunity for public to learn about project and provide input

PHILADELPHIA – Amtrak, the Pennsylvania Department of Transportation (PennDOT) and the Southeastern Pennsylvania Transportation Authority (SEPTA) will host an open house this month to provide details on the construction phase of the Paoli Station Accessibility Improvements Project. This project will include a series of improvements aimed at making the station fully accessible for all passengers.

The open house will be held on Wednesday, June 8, 2016 at the Paoli Train Station from 4:00 p.m. -7:30 p.m. Identical Information/displays and project staff will be available and located in the northwest outbound SEPTA permit parking lot and the south inbound parking lot adjacent to the station. The Open House provides an opportunity to review project renderings, discuss project details and review the project construction timeline. The project team welcomes your questions and interest in this important project.

Accessible vans will be available at the lower northwest parking lot (SEPTA Permit Lot) to transport passengers to the area of the Open House.

The public is also invited to learn more about the project by visiting nec.amtrak.com or www.septa.org/rebuilding.

About Amtrak®

Amtrak is America's Railroad®, the nation's intercity passenger rail service and its high-speed rail operator. Amtrak and its state and commuter partners move people, the economy and the nation forward. Formally known as the National Railroad Passenger Corporation, Amtrak is governed by a nine member board of directors appointed by the President of the United States and confirmed by the U.S. Senate. Anthony R. Coscia is board chairman and Jeffrey R. Moreland is vice chairman. In FY 2014, nearly 31 million passengers traveled on Amtrak on more than 300 daily trains – at speeds up to 150 mph (241 kph) – that connect 46 states, the District of Columbia and three Canadian Provinces.
