

Tredyffrin Township Comprehensive Plan

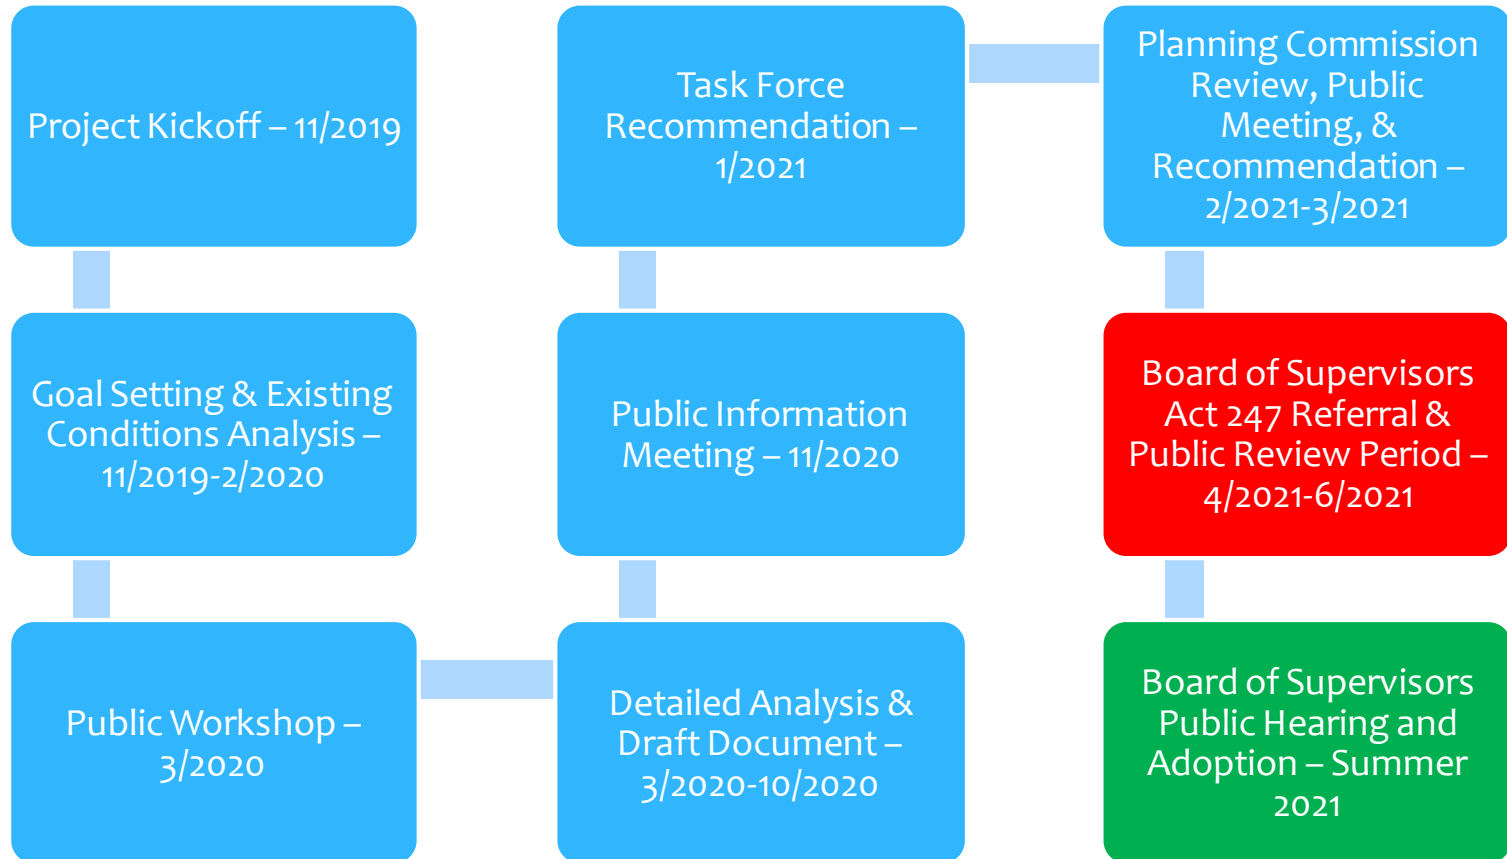

Board of Supervisors Update

May 24, 2021

Process

Act 247 Review

- The Board of Supervisors initiated the Act 247 review process at their April 19 meeting.
- The draft plan was forwarded to adjoining municipalities, TESD, and the CCPC for review and comments on April 20.
- The full draft plan was made available for public review on the Township website or via hard copy at the Township office during the week of April 19.

Act 247 Review

- The mandatory 45 day review period as prescribed by the MPC runs through June 4.
- Any comments received during this time will be compiled and considered for inclusion in the final document.
- A public hearing to consider the formal adoption of the plan is tentatively scheduled for June 21.

Public Hearing

- At the public hearing a presentation will be made to briefly go through the priority topics for those in attendance. These topical areas include:
 - Natural resources and environment
 - Parks and recreation
 - Historic preservation
 - Connectivity
 - Community services and facilities
 - Commercial and economic development
 - Future land use
