Opening of Elevators and Overpass Pedestrian Bridge

February 2019 Update:

Starting Wednesday, February 14, 2019, the elevators and Overpass Pedestrian Bridge will be opened for passenger use. Passengers will be allowed to use the stairs and ramps that connect to both the South and North elevator towers.

Please Note: The Center High Platform will not be available for use at this time. Amtrak Passengers will continue to use the temporary high level platforms on both the South and North sides for boarding. SEPTA Passengers will continue to use the low level boarding on both the South and North sides.
